A MIXED AFFAIR. - On Saturday morning Judge Good was forced to listen to a series of complaints, eman- bridge at Steubenville. ating from one family in Ritchietown. Said complaints were caused by love, unfaithfulness and jealousy. A lady of Teutonic birth, named Shultz, was arrested on the charge of committing an assault on another lady, named Mitz. with a pistol. From the evidence elicited we learn this: Mr. Shultz, the husband of the defendent, had forgotten his marital yows, and had become too intimate with Miss Mitz.

She being rather excitable, "got her Dutch up," and committed the assault for which she was charged. For this Mrs. S. was fined the sum of $1 and costs. Mrs. S., to have satisfaction, now had Miss M. arrested on the charge of fornication. The charge being sustained, she was held to appear at the next term of court. Miss Miz then got her

The Captain, taken unawares, was scarcely able to reply, but managed to thank the company for their beautiful Addison Elizabeth Boggs Mittie token, and promised to keep it, and value it, not for its intrinsic worth, but as a remembrance of those with whom, for four years, he had endured the hardfor four years, he had endured the hard-Baker R J ships of battle and the monotony of Ceel Mary V camp. The watch and chain cost $200.

Very resp't, your obedit serv't,

I have carefully examined the Artificial simple in their construction, of good workmanship, light and very substantially made.

I cheerfully recommend them to any who may need artificial limbs.
